Princeton Day School

Princeton, N.J.

1988

Dedication

Elizabeth B. Fine

Few people have had as long and dedicated a career as Mrs. Elizabeth B. Fine. For many years, first at Miss Fine's School, which her late husband's aunt founded, then at Princeton Day, she has drawn her students into the world of classical literature with her extraordinary enthusiasm for teaching. Mrs. Fine's style is unique: never does she utter a stern word, never a rebuke which might dim some student's interest in ancient writings. She assumes her pupils have the same enthusiasm she does and, by doing so, transmits her rich sense of the classical world to them. Outside the classroom, she is every bit as pleasant as inside, from her piping "Toot, toot!" as she moves through crowded halls with her ever-present cart to the smiles she showers on passers-by. The only quality of Mrs. Fine which surpasses her cheer is her skill with her subject matter; she reads Greek faster than most people can read English. Through her enlightening classical teaching and her effervescence, Mrs. Fine has made an impact on Princeton Day School that will never be forgotten.

Thank you, Mrs. Fine, for bringing alive Achilles and Xenophon and all the souls in between. Thanks to you, Latin and Greek will never be dead languages for your students and colleagues.

Dear Class of 1988,

Although the school year has only progressed to the Thanksgiving recess, your class has already shaped its footprint for the year. By the time you graduate, we should have a clear depiction of the outline that will constitute your senior year at PDS.

To date, you have made a fine commitment to your academic responsibilities; you have demonstrated a tenacious, positive spirit in your athletic endeavors; you have provided us moments of high drama and creativity on Halloween; you have pursued your Community Council duties with vigor and vision; and you have displayed a delightful sense of humor. More is to come, I am sure.

For now, let me say how much I appreciate your contributions to the positive tone and direction of the school year. Many colleges and universities will be pleased to have you on their campuses. You will be missed here, but I know you will return to share your future experiences with us.

Good Luck.

Sincerely

Duncan W. Alling

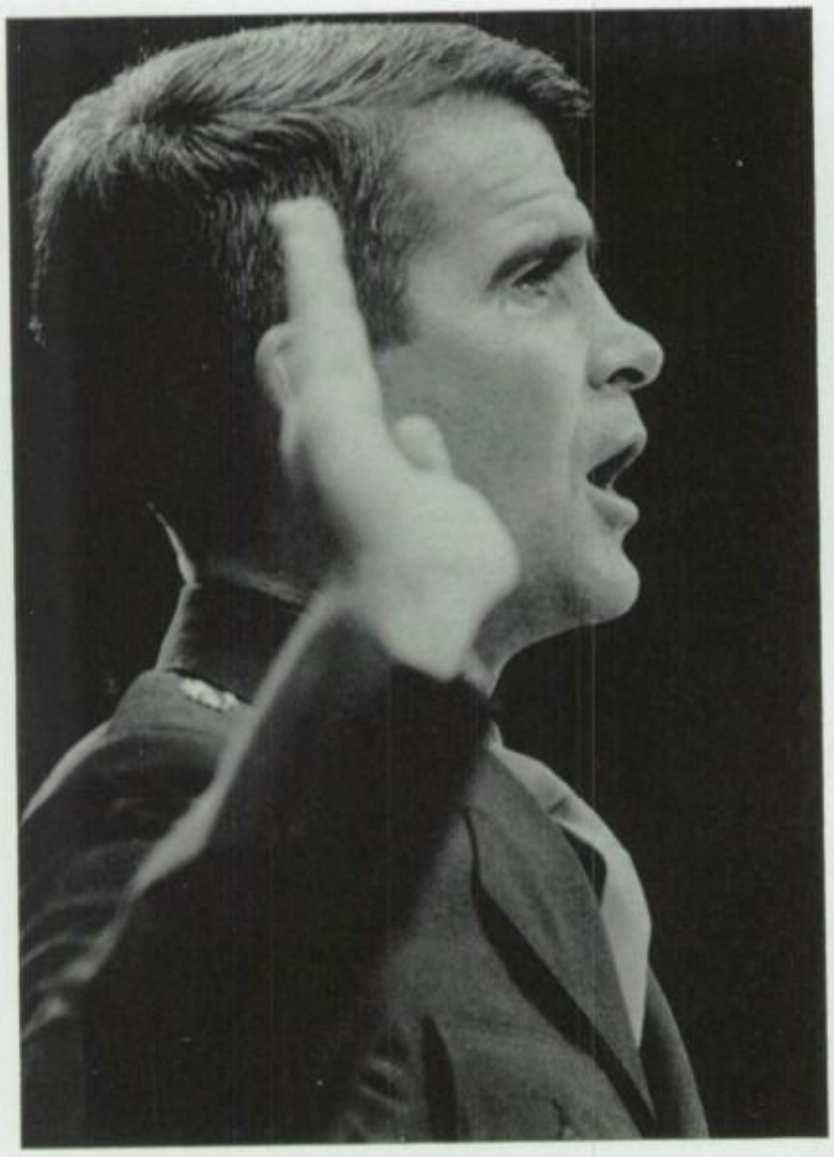
The Way It Was . . .



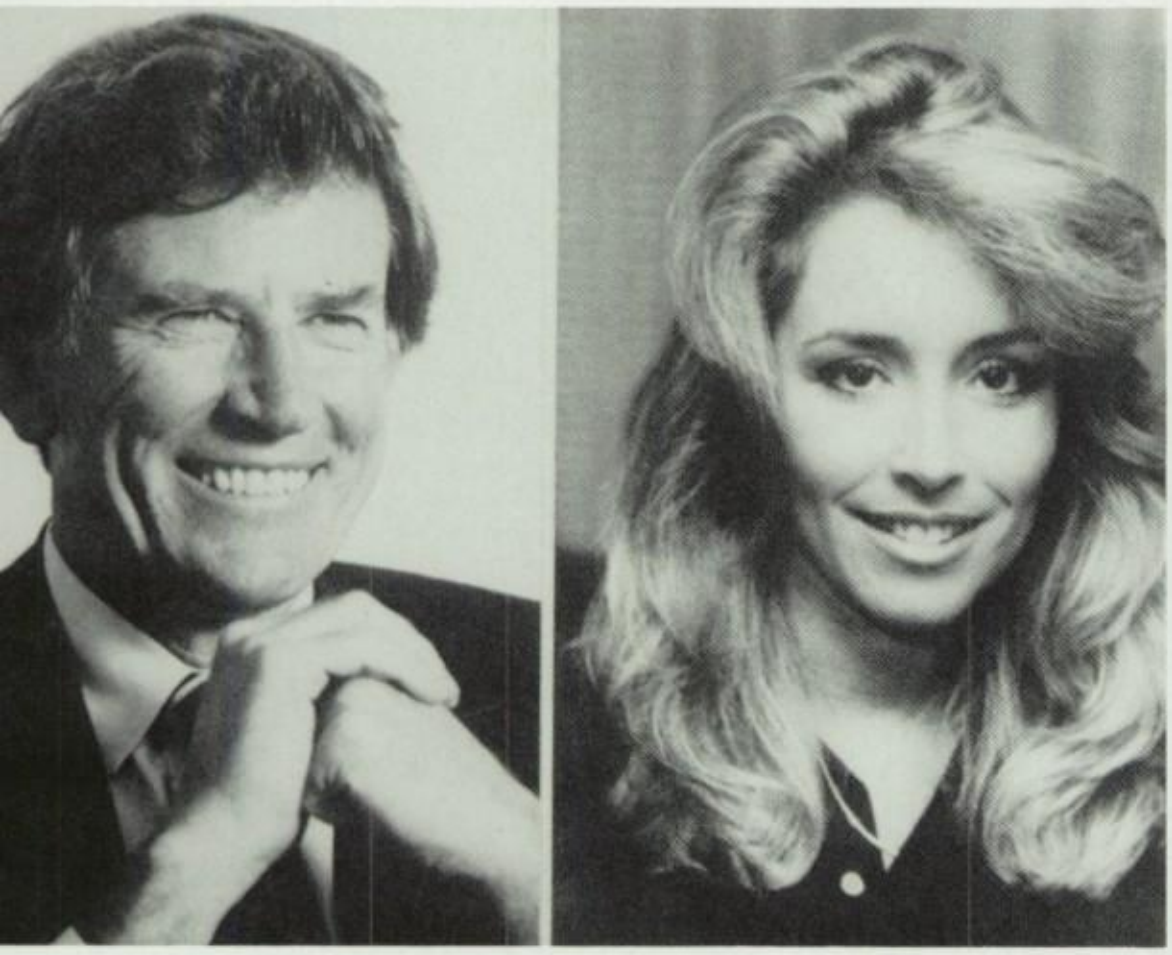
Marine Lt. Col. Oliver L. North, was a key figure in the plan to finance anti-government rebels in Nicaragua with money from arms sales to Iran. In testimony before the Iran-Contra hearings in Washington, North became a instant celebrity (?)

President and Mrs. Reagan greeted Pope John Paul II when he arrived in Miami to begin a nine-city tour of the United States.

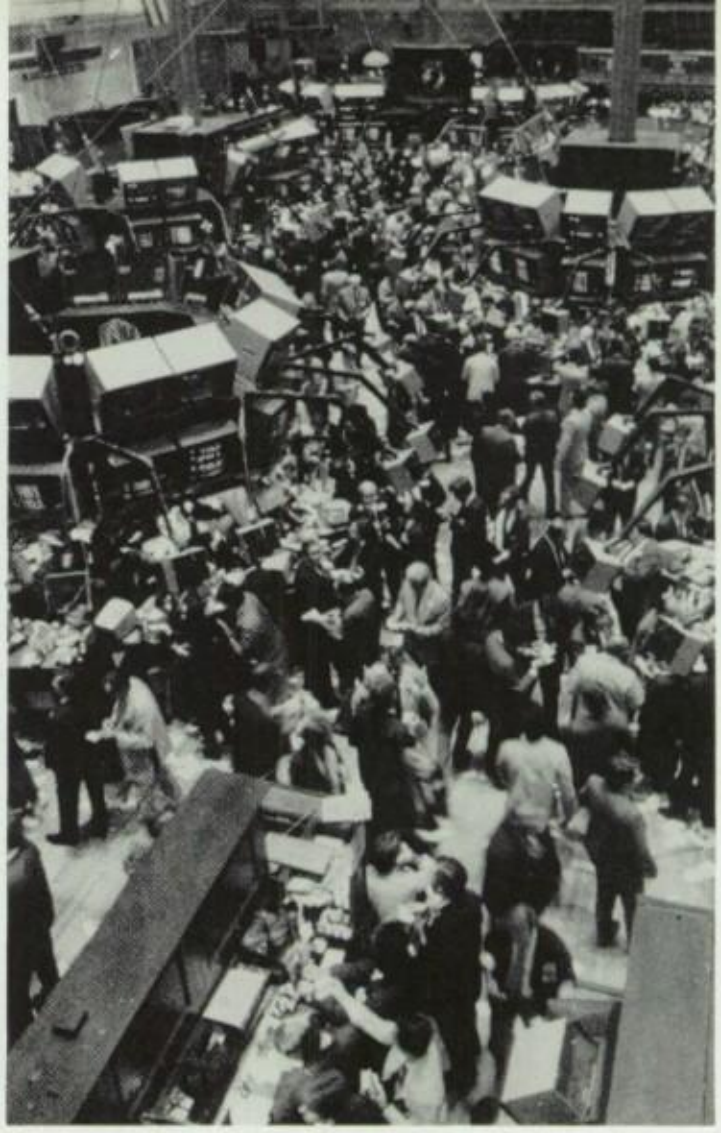
In an effort to keep the Persian Golf open to navigation, the United States began in July to escort vessels to protect them from Iran. In September, the U.S. Navy blew up an Iranian ship that was caught laying mines in the Gulf. American lives were lost in the on-going skirmishing.

President Reagan talks with Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev during arrival ceremonies at the White House. The two superpower leaders held a three-day summit hearing in December and signed a nuclear arms control agreement.

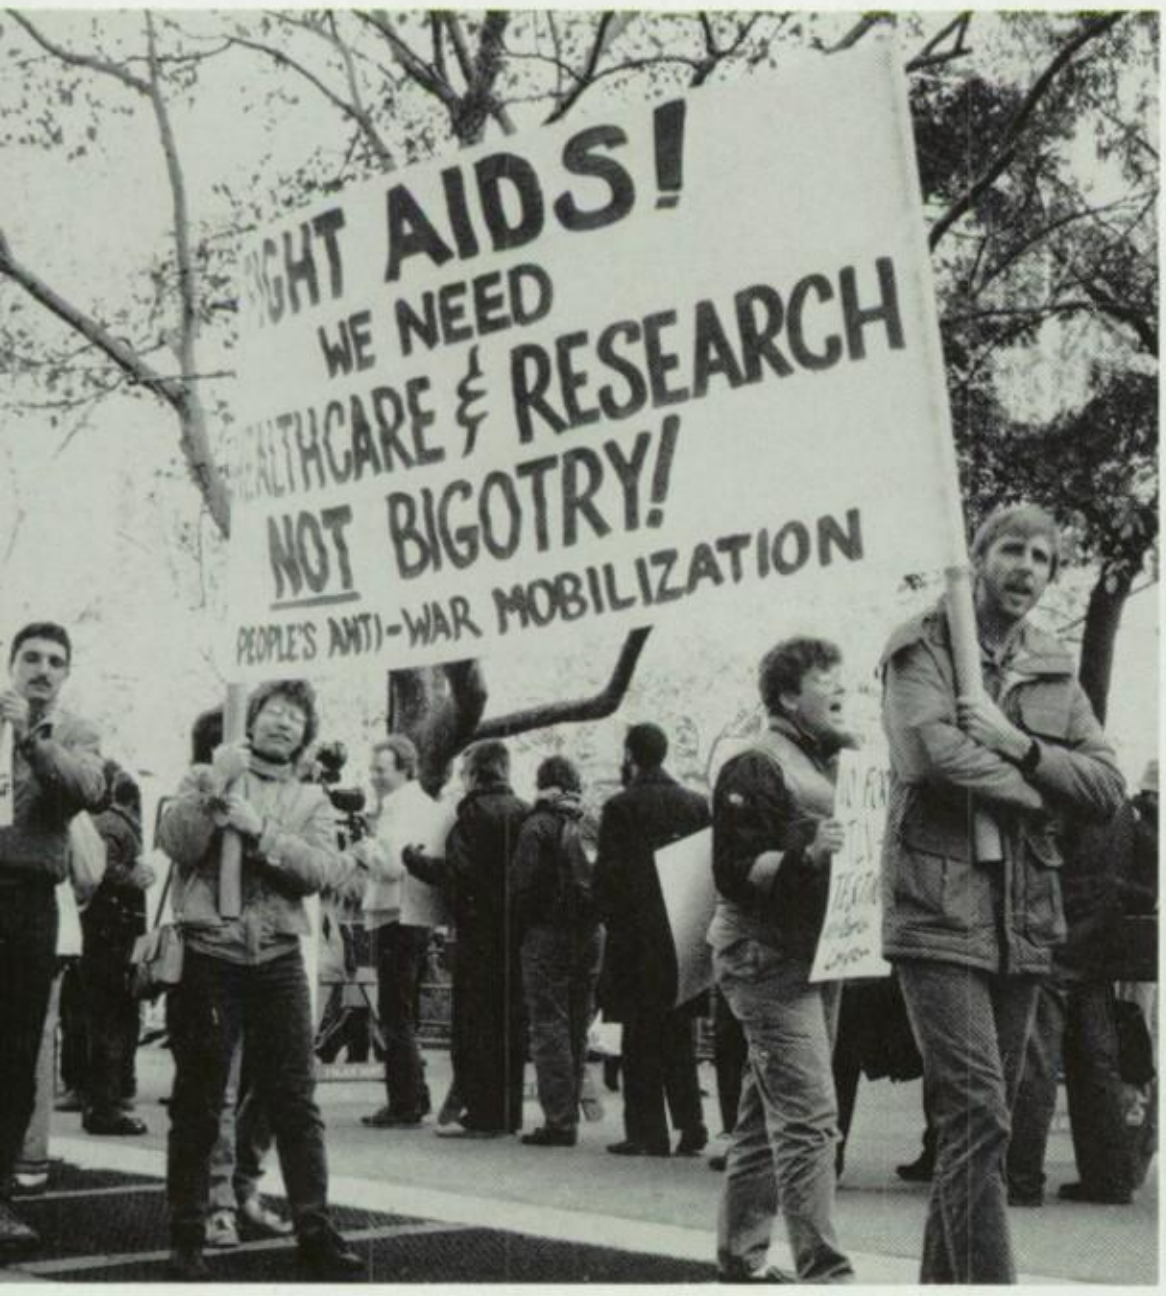
The senate rejected President Reagan's nomination of Robert H. Bork to the Supreme Court by a 58-42 vote, which ended a long contentious debate over a judge alternately portrayed as a brilliant jurist and a dangerous extremist. His next nominee, who resigned, admitted to smoking marijuana.



Democratic presidential candidate Gary Hart was forced to drop his bid for the presidency after it was reported that he was romantically involved with Donna Rice, a 29-year-old aspiring actress and model from Miami. He then surprised the voters by re-entering the race.



The Dow Jones industrial stock average dropped 508 points, the largest in history, on Monday, October 19. Some called it a "crash," others called it a "meltdown," and others called it "Black Monday." Whatever it was, it stripped $500 billion from the market value of U.S. securities. Uncertain Times!



In the six years since Americans first heard of a mysterious immunity-robbing disease from which no one recovers, AIDS has killed nearly 25,000 Americans, millions of dollars have poured into medical research and President Reagan has proclaimed the plague "Public Health Enemy No. 1."

An earthquake that measured 6.1 on the Richter scale hit Southern California in October. It was not a catastrophic quake, but the damage was extensive.

A barge filled with 3,128 tons of garbage became a national joke and a symbol of the nation's worsening problem with solid waste management. The barge, looking for a place to dump its cargo, was banned by six states and three foreign countries before an incinerator reduced it to ash.

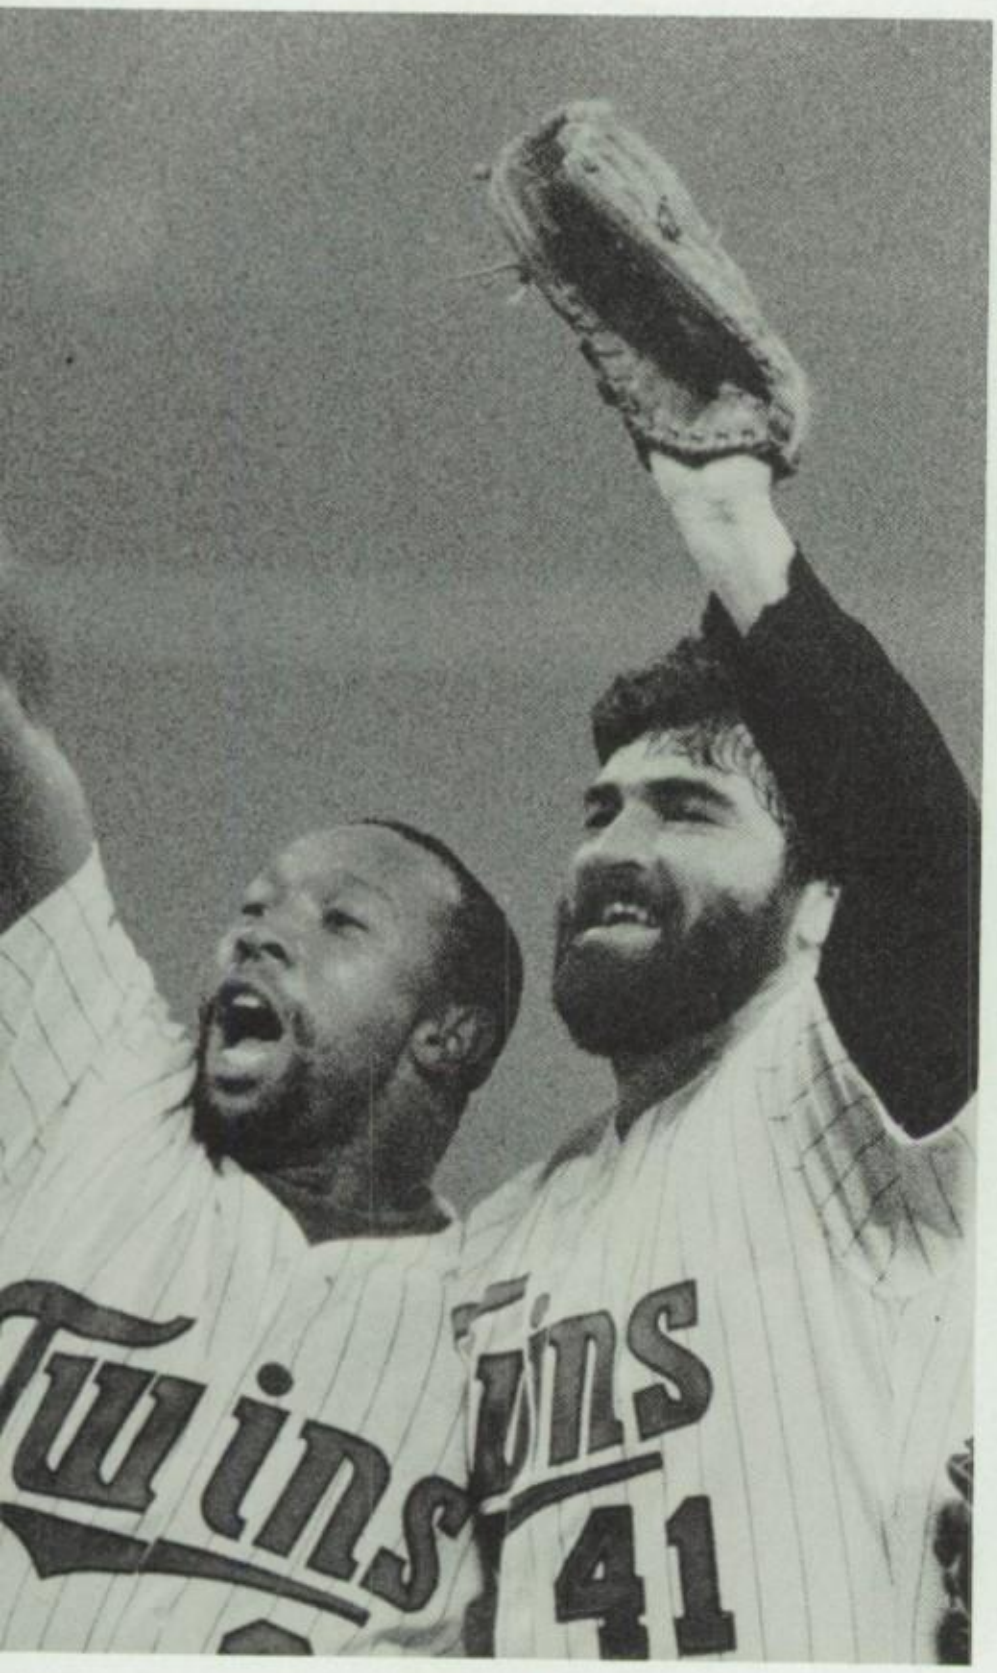
Television evangelists Jim and Tammy Bakker said farewell to the PTL ministry in March. Jim Bakker resigned after confessing to a sexual encounter with a young woman. Tammy Bakker bowed out of the broadcasts to undergo treatment for drug dependency.

A 24-day strike by the NFL players ended in mid-October when the union capitulated and went to court instead of trying to fight the club owners at the bargaining table.

Miss Michigan, Kaye Lani Rae Rafko, a nurse who shook up the talent competition with a Ploynesian dance, was crowned Miss America 1988.

Two of the top entertainers of the year were Whitney Houston and Madonna.

Dennis Connor, the man who lost the America's Cup in 1983, won it back four years later. The Stars & Stripes completed a 4-0 sweep over Australia's Kookaburra III in the race that took place in Australia.



irby Puckett and Jeff Raerdon of the Minnesota Twins celebrate heir World Series victory over the St. Louis Cardinals. The Twins on the seventh and final game of the series 4-2.

The Golden Gate Bridge in San Francisco celebrated its 50th birthday. About 250,000 people jammed onto the bridge for an anniversary walk across the span. Another 500,000 packed the bridge approaches but were denied access because the engineers feared the span could not support the weight.

We've taken out this space in The Link
To brag and boast and puff in ink
About a grad of '88
Whose exploits we consider great
(Well ... most of them, at any rate).

No doubt this grad would die from shame
At all this mushy praise from us.
We shan't, therefore, reveal his name;
He will remain anonymous,
Seen only via indirection,
Through the light (there's no light clearer)
Cast back by the bright reflection of WOLRIM NHOL before a mirror.

We've read you in The Spokesman reporting your scoop.
We've watched you, in fencing,
    turn foes to Swiss Cheese.
We've heard you perform,
    with your thrash music group,
In keys sure to please
    fans of the Dead Kennedys.
We've seen you mature
    from a neophyte reader
To a literate, lively, and peerless Peer Leader.
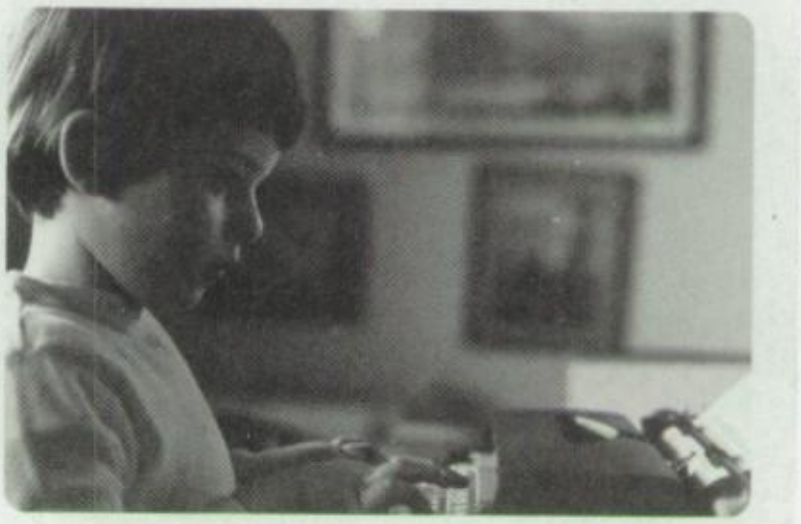
You've done all the work
    in your schooling career;
We get the fun:
    we take the credit, and cheer.

So here we are, your family, gaga
As your Princeton Day School saga
Comes at last to termination
In honors-laden graduation

Congratulations ! !

To a totally tubular max, way-rad grad,
From Toby, Denise, Big Bro, Mom, and Dad.



Our young scholar in pre-Mac days.

If you love somebody, set them free.

Sting

We're proud of you, Greg!

Mother and Dad

Mona,

So you've decided to leave your mother . . . it's all right, I'll be fine. There must be work someplace for an old lady. Maybe a little volunteering here, a little volunteering there. Don't worry, I'll find something to keep me busy. So I won't be packing lunches, who cares! Who needs laundry?! Only a mother knows such agony. So anyway, drop me a line. And don't forget to wear a slip!!

Helene,

Well, the good times are over; that means better times can begin. Of course, being in college, you'll have to take things seriously. That's good because you should get all the "seriously" out of your system so you can really enjoy yourself.

You are now prepared to get a good education which hopefully will make you smart enough to know that you never needed it in the first place. But at least you will know that when faced with the choice of funding the development of a small country of educating their child, your parents were loyal to you.

Have a nice day,

Dad

Your first smile, your first words, you fierce determination. What a joy it's been to grow with you.

Love and kisses,

Mom

WE REMEMBER

Melissa as a little girl sitting on a high stool in the "darkroom". She was waiting for the image to appear on a sheet of paper in a pan of smelly liquid. It did! It was a picture of — Melissa.

The same little girl chatting with Santa at Macy's.

Then walking along 5th Avenue enjoying the animated Christmas displays.

The sights we saw from the top of the World Trade Center.

Climbing all those steps inside the Statue of Liberty.

The fast ride to the top of the Washington Monument.

Running fingers over a name on the Vietnam Memorial.

Suddenly, you are grown, preparing for college.

Now, we are good friends (doing) lunch, shopping and talking a mile a minute.

These are the times we place high on our list of happy memories.

Thank you Melissa.

Love,
Gram and Dzia

All, what can I say? You've made my PDS stay bearable. Wench, all the laughing, crying, fighting, running up stairs, peverse conversations, and nose-scratching has made you my best friend! Thank God I have arms and guess what happened in Jamestown by the sound! Thanks for always being around — I love you but I don't want you! Lambros, Jeff and Laird, We've been friends for a while and probably will somehow continue our many illegal trips to Wawa and Woodfield. I'll always remember — doozie, "my love", the commune, beer-pong, the- - - - room in the apt and my mom's x-mas parties. Brooke, wow, we've been through a lot together. Crossing the street in Honda, Karma control, fourth of July, our men, our crazy, screwed up lives! Oh, have they been great! Remember, a month before your 17th! Kari, our secret dare, yelling. "Don't do it, you'll die!" from the chairlift, and our many deep & serious conversations about bodily functions have been great. Remember the Green River! Rache, meeting Kurt at Wawa, skipping tennis practice, getting lost in Amherst, Winberries, Well, it's all been interesting. Your impatient & highstrung personality is great — don't change! Liz, Nantucket, Chris' long night, sherburne, Nobadeer and of course chez one must all happen again this summer! Becca & Hillary, if a friend left a game of scruples in your car, & you really liked it, would you return it? I'm really happy we became better friends this year. B-B-Brit, I will always love parting with you as long as it's not my apt! Cliff, all I can say is I love you. Sorry I missed Hampton but be psyched for Alpine Valley. And finally, Mom, Dad, Scott and Phil, thanks for supporting me and being there. All the bad will never erase the good.

Love & Peace to all of you.

Thanks,

Holly

Mom & Dad: Thanks, I love you. Chrissy: The only one I can be sleazy with. Here's to champagne occasions and hot music. Where would we be with infatuations? Love ya! The Grounds: I'll miss my pseudo-parents! Liz: Pinky lives forever! I'll miss the laughs, so many that I can't write them down. Love you Lizard. Collins: Oh, what a co-leader. Thanks for all the phone calls and abusive conversation. We made it through some "difficult" Tuesdays. May you always have a harem. Love, Landi Kit: Gray-man, North, South, East . . . Charcuterie parties and dishwashers. Next year when you're bored, just say "one, tuh, thruh". Love ya. Paul G.: Thanks for the friendship. Too bad, your loss. I love you. Scottie: I missed you this year, you've kept me sane. Love always, Landi-Loo. Laura: Charcuterie Forever. Erika: We were never without a dilemma. Take care math buddy. Jeremy: May you always be on a "roll". Arianna: "and you can dance . . . " P.U. the V. I hope you always wear black. Jessie: "F" — you! Let's compile data again soon. Miriam: "Mim" you big "Mouton". Vince: promise me that I can always call you "Vinnie". Rob: "Yo, Yo, baby POP!" Will: you know I was always pulling for you. Ramsay & Murray: You're the best, good luck. To My Peer Group: Thanks for trying (sort of) GOOD LUCK Peer Group Staff & Leaders: Let's get "back to PDS" soon. (Just kidding) I'll miss you. Miss Neider: I hearby leave you my perfume. Thanks. Jim: yo, baby, wha's happenin"! To the Girls of C-2: Smartfood (or was it no-food?) Matilda Bays and Skiing (sort of) Yeah Killington. If I forgot anyone, I'm sorry, I love you!

Something to keep in mind — "I drink to make people interesting" — words of wisdom from a man who has his priorities straight. "Kick her in the c.... ," words from Brit, a man who has no priority (or clue). Well this is an open invite to those of you who bother to read this ad to visit me at good old Nassau next year — just come on campus and yell; I'll be around. Now hold your breath and read these real fast.

Collins Roth

To Paulie G. — Wrong hotel? Unlucky for you.
To Chrissy — Champagne anyone?
To Landi — Are you going out with Collins?
To P.G. — Why?
To Brit — Oh! This is great!
To Robertson — Dana lost it in a limo lately?
To Anheuser Busch — Thanx for all the good times.
To Everyone — See you at reunions.

Mimi — Always remember the remember whens . . . love,

Holly — six years now. what a life we've had together. from parties on Ridgeview Circle to the apartment to weekends in Georgetown and Ft. Lauderdale and summers in Jamestown and Nantucket. The rafting trip in 7th grade, our list of men, running up the stairs, my nose itches, sleeping in your closet, P.S. I love you, dirt, loser, beating you up, the fun never stops! I love every ounce of you. Andrea — L'ville guys and PHS parties, McKnill island, Missouri, Dave who?, kika, watching smut movies, LONG telephone conversations, we've shared so much and I'll never forget you. Krista — physics review, cheese and crackers, the beach and our bikins, teaching you to drive, the many men we've had, Blondie, do I look okay? You always do — don't change!! Julie — Monica, Helga, lighting up in the bathroom, learning French, six years of math, Tinkerbell and Peter Pan, Joe and going to NYC (where's Aline?), I'll see your sister on a street corner, someday, Rocky Horror at 4:00 am, acid washed jeans and red hair I love you! Jessie — my roommate of four years, Rodney and family, soloflex, calendar, and candy, Peer Group etc., thanks for being a great friend I love you! Kate B. — Sorry for leaving you behind. Latin was a blast. I'll miss you. Jim and Greg — from soccer to Peer Group you have always been my best buddies. Chris M. — I'm so glad you came to PDS I will miss you. Mr. Cara and Mrs. Venable — my favorite bio teachers, thanks for everything! Rich — I saved the best for last, you are the best friend a girl could ask for I love you more than I can say and will miss you terribly — thanks a million for always being around. And to everyone else: Lambros, Juliet, Helene, Jeremy, Jen Kim, Peter G., and my peer group, you've all made me what I am, thanks so much.

Love always, Amy

Landis: My pillar of strength, 7:45 — 8:30 school days, parliaments, champagne fests, hysterical laughing and crying, there's too much to say. Erika, Steve and Melissa: My concert buddies. Paul: hysterical phone calls at midnight, not concerts, "any girl that would . . . " wait till graduation, huh? Jessie: Some great advice, similar situations. Jimbo: Stay away from these inner thighs. Hill: My mom and dad your adopted parents. Becca: boo. Kit: my surrogate sister, friends forever. Laura: sexual advice in Florida, swimming in my pool, mimosa galore. Liz: my squash partner, Caribbean party, a hard decision but the right one, you're a great friend. Kari: Mikado, you chain smoker you, New York before graduation I promise! Collins: leaving at 7:00, arriving at 2:00, that's all Holly: thanks for my first show Rob: NYC what a day, the best group ever, you are so much more than my co-leader. Love you Miriam. Arianna: I can't think of anyone I'd rather break a table with. Jeremy: daily two hour phone calls, nine months, dubious, sorry about the dead, I meant everything — forever

Love, Christine

Melissa: I feel like we've been friends forever! All the fun, trouble, good & bad times, I can't imagine it without you. Kit: We've been through so much together, I couldn't have done it without you. Let's always be friends. Jenni: 15 years of great memories, next year will be strange but we'll probably end up living next door to each other. Steph: I take it back, you have no morals! Good luck next year. Paul: We've had our ups and downs, but I'm glad we always came out friends. Hillary, Kari, Landis, Krista, Chrissy: You guys are great friends. I'll miss you. Pete, Jim, Steve, Bri: Thanx for all the memories. Have a blast next year! Chris L.: you're a great buddy! I'll miss you next year. Casey & Andy D.: Good luck in your senior year!! Mom & Dad: I'll always love & need you both very much. Thanks for all your love, trust and support. Dorthea, Ryan, Chris, Louis, Kim, Kiera: You've all added a lot to My life. I love you.

Love always,

Seth man, what can I say, too much. Naples, Captiva, "Little Freshmen . . . ," Jello on a book? A snow day? Well, hey man you better keep in touch and always remember that you were the one that always started not me. Oh yeah . . . No, forget that one I'll write that one only in your yearbook. Good Luck. Jeff: Well see you later man. We were bad ass kids. Your attic, Huck (or actually an elephant), Brown? Just drinking and smoking. Well to you too. Good Luck and have fun. Holly: You're awesome. Claudet always tells me I'm going to marry you. We can laugh at that. S- -t we've really been friends for a long time. The commune (HAHAHAHAHA) Enjoy whatever you do. Bonzai! Cliff: Later on man. Your mom hates me. Just think you're out of your house. But aren't you going to miss your room. I am. Keep drawing. Brit & Paul: You two are comedy together or even alone. When our friends get in fights the first things to pass through their minds is "Paul, Brit." Hey give me a call next year. I'll be around. Enjoy your year and ½ summer vacation. I will.
Laird: Well, man. Good luck next year. How are you going to get to school? I'll be around next year. Purple drinks, Tall boyJohn, summer job (HA!), Long Island — cruising in the Honda. 1st grade to 12th grade WOW. Two words for it, "Very Nice." Oh yeah Friday is . . . Day. Have fun.
Dave: You and Laird got to hold your own roads next year. Watch those blue moons. "I'm a step ahead of you." Not really. Have fun, I know you will.
The Fellas: It's been too good. "Very nice" We've got to get together next year.
Erinn: You're a Batcha I'm a Xethalis. How could we not get along? Good luck. Hey when I'm around we'll grab a butt.
Will, Jamie, Meg, Juliette, Chriss & Jay: Have fun.

Steph: Lax, "LMM," gallon of Matilda Bay in your fridge and your spastic Ewing friends — I'll miss you.
Chris: Remember, never trust a girl who gives you toilet seats.
M&M: I'm not a little girl! I'll miss you two a lot.
Lib & Heather: the Bobsey twins! Have a great Senior Year!
Elisa: B.B. — what a joke. I'll miss all of our "talks."
Heidi and Elaine: Running all over trying to get served — thank God for Elaine. Good luck next year.
Matt: Heidi's — what a hassle. Who cares, we had fun fighting it out. Good luck, Wyoming will never be the same. I'll miss you. Patti: Janet Jackson, Raison Raisonets, John & Lee, Grateful Dead summers, I love you fuzzi bear. Peter A: What else but "Valentine's Day Weekend." George: 16 carnations, that was the best. It was a long time ago but it was good while it lasted. Neon pizza signs, Great Adventure, shopping carts at Mercer Mall, junior mints, Vaurnets & Benetton sweaters — I'll never forget you. Jamie S. — "I'm a cool cat." Thanks for the wave of knowledge. Laird & Jamie — Even though I never laughed when you harassed me, I loved it. Good luck next year & don't get into too much trouble. Ed — You're a "Groton man," A computer gerner, a Princeton stud, a better driver (haha), a "tea" drinker, a great friend, an 8th & 9th grade crush and forever in debt $5.00 — but I love you anyway. Extra moms and dads — Thanks for putting up with me, I know it wasn't easy. Krista — shanky guys at M.F., battles in the locker room, baby oil — yuk, Dickinson, natural tans? Ag-ick, A.Y. & I.N. — pathetic, it's been quite a year. It took forever but we outgrew it. I'll miss you alot. You're a good friend. Arianna — Through you I found the better part of me (Dudo — 4½ years but I did it). We found in each other what we were missing in ourselves. "Didn't you bring the credit cards?" Melvin, all the Uto's, 100%, Franny Zone, Wild Boys of the West & bras on the highway. You're my best friend always — I love you. Melissa — From tuna fish & italian ice to Killington & chocolate munchkins. We've definitely been through it all. We started off kind of slow but it turned out to be the best. I'm going to miss you so much! Never forget our crazy car rides to the beach, spaghetti dinners, managing tennis and yellow ski goggles. Ricky: It's been 15 years and we've finally made it. We went from Great Adventure at age 5 to "escaping" with Kathy to Plan A to anything and everything else. "So who's making the movie?" "That's a very large idea." "I'm a cool cat." "Gotta get money for luuunch," and best of all, "Can I drive." We've definitely had the best of times. You're a great friend. I'm going to miss you a lot. Susie: I love you so much — you're the best sister in the world. I'm going to miss you so much next year — but you still can't have my room. I love you. Mom & Dad: I couldn't have done it without you. I love you so much. Please keep my room ready for me in case I want to come back home but if I don't I'll still always be your little girl who manages to find trouble in everything. I love you always.

Love, Jenni

Peer Group #10: I really hope that you've gotten something from me. I've had a good time with you guys. Good luck with the rest of PDS. Greg, Pete, Miriam, Kit, Laura, Jim, Holly, & Elisa: You guys have been good friends. Good luck next year. Kari: This is so weird. It's really hard to express all that I feel. I can't believe we're not going to see each other a lot next year — I dread the phone bills. Keep up your amazing talks and don't forget our 1000's. Hill: This year has been great with you. I'm so glad we finally came around and became a lot more than just buddies. I won't forget you. Mom & Dad: I love you. Ani: I am going to miss you so much. I can't wait to have you come visit me. I love you so much. Have fun walking Zip and cleaning out the dishdrainer. HAHA.

Love, Becca

Ames: What will I, or the rest of us, do without you next year? You know I love you — always will — and I'll miss you.
Hill: You're a deceiving, conniving, little co-leader, but I've enjoyed all we've done together — better keep in touch! Peer Group: Thanks for the laughs. You guys are great! Witches of Eastwick: Thanks for the black magic — I learned a lot.
Mrs. Skvir: I've enjoyed working with you, and thank you for your patience, help, and all your caring. We could have never gotten through three years without you. Sue Neider: It's been six years. I'm glad you stayed around to "guide" me. Good luck in the future — keep in touch, tell me what's happening. Endings are only the flip side of beginnings.
Class of '88: Thanks for putting up with me and: "Hey, let's be careful out there!"
Etc: Hey babe, you know, guys, you'll see my name in lights up in Vegas, babe. We'll meet there sometime, big guy, but it'll never be the same.

R

M! I can't imagine what our phone bill will be like next year! Thanks for always being there. I love you. Landis — Hey teach, we've had so many good times — 2:30, north, south, east, Fla, bip, shark parties, dumpsters at 2:00 am and smartfood anytime! Love ya. Chrissy — I can't believe how many years it's been. We've been through it all. Erika — We'll always be close. I'm glad things have worked out. I love you. Kari — It's been a long time since 9th grade and "I haven't seen you all day." I'm glad we've become such good friends. Next year after New Year's, let's go running?! Jim, Pete, and Greg — I'm glad that I got to know you this year. It's been a lot of fun. Liz — I'll miss your smiling crazy face next year. Thanks for keeping me laughing. Girls in C2 — Wanna buy a Matilda, a what?! Keep laughing!! Hil — To my study buddy, lax and running partner, how was Oprah today? Laura & Becca — Lots of fun times. Don't forget our van ride to Taft. Elisa — Field hockey, ice hockey, and lacrosse — great memories.

You guys — Thanks for all the great times. You all mean so much to me.
I love you.
Kit

Mom & Dad — Thanks for all your love and support. I love you.
Tony & Elizabeth — I love you guys and I'm gonna miss you.

Cheryl — My twin, who's your idol? It's been many an age since the car with PT — shake!! Miriam — Beware of the killer Peters. Save Xmas 88 to rag on PP et al with PA and no doubt, to go out jammin' when we're done. You're beautiful. Dolans — Let's go to Florida just to have breakfast, and this time, I promise not to insult the waitress. Nikki — Evoking lunar asparagus on the NYC subways and soliciting artistic bartenders with ponytails (I'll have a ginger ale, really) is divine, but why wasn't i the one on TV? Jessie — Neocolonial J-bert, the non-white Catholic jam queens need a long confession. I love us for never having sold out and for making the Bromfus rap a legend. Euro-tech Rods. Peter — How we ever survived our egos remains another one of our unexplainable secrets. I'm not the poet, but spontaneity is the key to life. Elevated soul mate, you are gold. Jenny — Winifred may never have gotten Melvin to take a bath, but as for the wild boys lost in the Franny Zone — WOW. PDS without the Utos, the pigs in space, and you to keep me chugging would have been worthless. Wanda — Does the word bad influence mean anything to you? "Uh, sure she's . . . 21." Corruption is ugly and so is a pretentios ego. But hey I'm an 80s gal so who cares? Mamma and Papa — Senza di voi la mia vita sarebbe niente. Peter — Life will be quiet without me, but I have this funny feeling you'll be coming to DC every weekend. Don't get caught when you steal the car.

Link Staff

Gina: Usually outspoken and always dependable, keep up quiet commentary — it's hilarious. Thanks for being sooo dedicated. You always give us your time. Arianna: Back rubs, Phallic candy, divider pages, PP, hair dye, P-ton people, over-commitment — Thanks. Collins: What to say? There would be a lot of empty yearbook pages, if it weren't for you; or at least ones without excellent photos. Thanks for being so dedicated. Rich: Thanks for all of your money. Never again will the Link have a business editor like you, nor will they need 8 more pages for ads. Elaine: So what's $75 for a brick of film anyway!? It was worth it for all the photos and fun. Mike: Even if we tell you to leave, you still have to come to meetings. Becca: It took you till January to realize that you were candids editor, however, you were great for the rest of the time. Janie: Thanks for your past, previous, and prior business experience. Peggy: Now that you've mastered the responsibilities of art editor, perhaps you are ready to move on. Amy: You were pulled in 8 directions — but we appreciated when you did your sports photos. George Paci: Thanks for the wonderful dedication. Juniors: It's up to you now. HAVE FUN!! Quinn: Thanks for all your great advice, insightful comments, and invigorating conversations. It's important to know that someone is always looking over our shoulders. Mrs. Rothrock: Roses are Red
Violets are Blue
Now that Link is over It's fair to say — we owe it to you.

Senior Class: What's left to say that we haven't already said.

Love,
Miriam and Peter

Brian: Busload of cheerleaders from L.I; Bartles & Jaymes; Red Lobster, White Rose, and Tastee Subs; Sizzler steak puck-up; Great Adventure: Washington weekend; Junior year sneaks into the Hendricks house; Exposé birthday; lax in the park — the list goes on. Together, we made Jer a real person? Thanks for being my brother. Remember: "Nothin' matters in the whole wide world, when your in love with a Jersey girl."

Jer: Mmmeeerrrr!! Even if boundaries are for breaking, real maturity is knowing which not to break. Thanks for reminding me. One striped shirt — 3 colors; foolish romance (C.G.); a 3 in Bio (I know you got a 1 for the semester); Doc; Phillies game; Ethiopian food; Aqua-vi night; Monte Carlo S.S; Ted Koppel hair — good thing you got in all your coolness in your last year and a half at PDS. Jer, Wendy's will never make it w/out us.

Miriam: Although you panicked a lot, were incredibly moody, tripped, fell, and were a general spaz, and talked too much during announcements, thanks for making the yearbook. Big, tough editor — what will the yearbook do without you next year? More importantly, what am I going to do next year? I will never find someone else to put up with my peculiar attitudes the way you have. M, thanks for being the best half of the yearbook. So good luck at Northwestern and stay carefree and relaxed.

Arianna: Roses are Red, Violets are Blue, Highschool was fun, but, Would it ever have been the same without you?

Chilly: Mr. Mess — who else could I have collaborated with to create the committee for the social decline of women or the Messin' Manifesto? Or to whom else could I have introduced Roofus & Regis? I know that I was a peckersnot the last year — always taking my phone off the hook and never "telling" you anything; however, who else could put Jer and Brian in perspective? Long live gladiator football! I like you, but I still gonna mess all over your face. Love, Pete Kit: Call me later. There's too much to write. I love you always, M!

A! Washington . . . Chicago — we'll bike it! I love you, M!

Jim: The dilemnas of high school — yes, you have a solution for each one. From the invasion of Janice and Sarah to the P problems (which one, of course) we made it! I love you, M!

Peter: How we did this, I'll never know. Thanks for the jokes, back rubs, your typing ability, and for being my co-editor. I'll always remember our infatuation with P.P. and with Mikey's Answering Machine. I'm going to miss you next year. I love you always, M! (both editor and Miriam)

Janice: Growing up with you was fun, but have we really grown up?!

Pete, Greg: Someday the bruises will heal. Sr. year would have been a bore without you two. I'll miss you. Love ya, M!

Elisa: We've had our ups and downs, but we managed to pull through. Love ya, M!

Kari, Hillary: Chambers Walk muffins, Dirty Dancing, Pelvic Scoop . . . I'm gonna miss laughing with you guys next year. Love ya, Mir

Gina: I love your quiet sense of humor — I'm sure Herffy does too. Thanks for everything. Love ya, M!

Mrs. Skvir & Mr. Bing: My favorite advisors. I always appreciate your encouragement and support.

Mom & Dad: You think the phone bills were bad this year, wait till next year!! I would never have come this far without you behind me. Thanks for everything. I love you, MTP

Deb & Steve: Through all the fights and arguments you know I'll always love you two. Hugs & kisses, MTP

Love to everyone, Miriam

Hill, Becca, Kit, Miriam, Chrissy, Landis, Liz, Laura, Holly, Pete, Jim, Greg, Erika, and Melissa, and to all of you mommas and pappas who have been so great. Where to begin? Lunches at Forrestal, the Bean Shop, Benny's, Dirty Dancing, Chinatown, TCBY etc . . . How much did we laugh? Quite a bit. These times have been the best.

Hey excuse me what's your name and by the way can I get that black piece of scum out of your tooth. Thanks Hill and Pete for holding me back. Greg, is something in my tooth, would you tell me? Miriam. Squash at that early hour and his alfalfa. Kit TCBY at all times even when it was closed. I haven't seen you all day. Ha ha!!! Becca and Hill I could go on for years. Three girls in the back seat of a taxi. How silly could we be. Becca you teeny bopper, as I was just soooo mature, right Hill. Blue light and you carry me home because you were depressed. Becca I had the most amazing talk with so and so including you. How many problems did we write on the bottom of my shoe.

Thank you all for dealing with me, my rhymes, lack of a place to sleep (Hill) diets (KH) uncontrollable laughter etc . . . How can I forget Killington and my spaghetti legs, but watch out there's a pregnant lady coming through. Rikky Jim ya so funny. I love you all and will never forget a bit of these times, they've been the greatest. Thank you Ma and Paw Moradoff, Mara and Toby.

The Parents Association extends warm wishes for happiness and success to the graduates of the Class of '88

The Alumni Association welcomes its newest members the Class of '88!

Dearest Landis:

'So one day the little raccoon looked up at his mother and said, "See here, my big warm mother, can I go now — out into the woods to see the night?"

And his mother, who knew that her child was wise and wonderful said, "off you go, for . . .
the moon is full."

Congratulations to you for who you are and for what you have achieved. I love you.

Mom

Fellas, we've had some great times.
LAMB: Very nice! Captive, Economics trip, St. Lawrence, stumble. Stay Crazy Arape.
Jeff: B.S. in history, campus parties, The Jet. Good Luck and hang fresh.
Britola: you're a crazy mother, lunches out BBC, 4-wheelin', thrashing. Good luck, see you in prison. Paul: I'm going to visit you out west, man. By now I will have beaten you in hoops at the Y. Good luck. Later. Cliff: Don't lose it, man. I bet you'll work real hard in college. Good luck, later. Becca, Kari, Hill: you girls are pretty cool. Good luck. Juniors: Laird: the rides home from Dead Shows, you started the yo-yo craze. You still have one more year, what a hassle. Good luck. Fish: try to keep your teeth man, your 3 keg party was the best. Later.
Dave: you're a mellow dude. Thanks for the moon. Stag single, it's less of a hassle. Jamie: Nice shades. Don't let the field be unused. Later.
Moe, Meg, Ani: you guys are good friends, have a nice senior year.
Laine: I love you, you're my best friend.
Adios

Marc,

Learning, as you already understand, is a lifelong pursuit, and we know you will seek wisdom in college and beyond. We wish you continued success at Princeton, and will always enjoy watching you grow. Continue to hear your own drum, and be thankful for those who will understand your need to march to it.

Love,
Mom & Dad & Scott

Hail, A, Yeah You,

You've always been there for me, you've helped me, gotten me out of trouble. You let me EVIRD, you're a stud bagelette. Next year you'll be at Georgetown and I'll be here, weekdays (shh!!) You will have fun without me and you know it. But it won't be fun without you, here. It will be silent. No more of your weird music, that's a plus. No more company, that's a minus. Good luck, God bless you, have a hell of a fun time.

Love,
Peter

Elias: Oh! The power in your smile. I hope that I offer you all the joy you give me. Although you will probably always give more than you will take, accept my soul in each kind word, in each laugh & in each kiss to come. Kari: Our friendship is beyond weakness or doubt. Until we die anticipate only boundless love and expect only unwarrented caring from me to you. "You just call out my name . . . " Becca: I understand you. It took time but the wait made the taste much sweeter. I realize your greatness and hopefully you will too, soon. Hold on to who you are because it's going to take you to the top. Rich: I grew up this year and your honesty played a crucial part. I have much respect for you, Mr. President. I'll see you in the Times. PG#3: I hope I helped you all in some way. Even if I just made you smile, I've succeeded. Liz C.: "Some people strengthen society just by being the kind of person they are" (James Garden) You've been my inspiration to strive, enjoy and to become. Continue your greatness. The world can use it. Pete, Jim and Greg: Sorry to lump you guys together but ¼ page is slim. Through all the fakeness I've seen in alleged friends, it's a great feeling to find sincerity in you three. I've discovered confidence, caring, fun, honesty and trust in each of you. For our talks, our jokes and our friendship. I love you all very much. Kit & Miriam: I'll always laugh at the silly memories but I would also like to remember & thank you for your smiling faces and your hugs when I needed them. Happiness is contagious with you. I admire you both.

Love,
Hillary

To Erika, Jenni and Steph — for all the fun and giggles I thank you, for the new gray hairs I forgive you and for the future I wish you love, laughter and success.

Love Mom H.

Pete, Brian, Dave & Rich

Guys, it's time to get along. We're gonna be late . . . and that's not appropriate.

Jer

M & D: Thanx, thanx, thanx. I love you so. Both guiding, fussing, yelling, nagging, oppressing, arguing — yeah, those were the days. OK, I guess you're right about everything after all. Chris: Yo, big bro, though yer gettin' old n' decrepit, you can still kick the s . . . out of me! Man, how many times have you gotten me out of a fix? More than I can count. I love ya. "OK guys . . . slow the hell down — you're going too fast — this has gotten way past funny . . . " Matthias: tis is it. You and I have been together so long; I hope you succeed and have a great time all at the same time. Argh! Sandra! Asndra! Satan! Harvard! Billy Boy: Whizz — BONK! Don't burn out too soon eh? G-town n' Nate; my lazy mentor. D.C. Space & Posurs. Lank n' Mellow — very mellow. KAREN! "IF you were any calmer, Bill, you'd be dead." Oy! Oy! Oy! I love Blood! I hate Reagan! I'm more spaced out than Carl Sagan! I'm a Hardcore man! I'm bad news! Bring a keg n' have some brews! Oi! Oi Oi! "Dudes — let's jump the bridge — CLONK — well, maybe not . . . " "Hey — it's the Mercury Marquis de SADE!!" "So many pedestreans, so little time." Beave: Eh; just keep taking guitar lessons, IK? n' get a real haircut fer Christ's sake!! "But wait — this is the Jupiter Bowl! We're stoked!" "Dude. Shut up. Dude. Stop making fun of my speech pattern. Dude." "Gee — I wonder how fast this'll go?" Roland: get a real life and then we'll talk — red hair. 4 wheelin', singin' stupid thrash songs. I hope you never grow up. Mike: super fencer, great guy, but best of all, a seething cauldron of sarcasm with legs! Hang in there! Mrs. Shepherd: Thanx for your support and advice. I really needed your help sometimes, and you were always there to supply support & counsel. "Porsche — there is no substitute" Charlie, Cindy, Dan, Graham, JA, Jennie, Jim, Tina: It's been great, guys. You are all fantastic. I wish you all the best for the next three years — and beyond! Jamie S.: too much to list — highlights — Utah, Vermont — ski, ski — Hey should I take these Gargoyles Revos? . . . Hmm . . . Peach Brandy — AARGH! keep n' touch, dood. Jamie K.: 4-4-4 wheelin! ZOO GA BOO GA DOO! You and me — we hit a tree! I gots me a rabbit — stuck in my grille! Oi — slapshots n' women: these are a few of my favorite things! Ahgh! 10 cases! Mr. Page, Rev, Mrs. V.: You guys are too much — crazy and the best — so tolerant, so giving. Thanx fer the recs. Jessie: Peer group! HO! Smoke sum butts! La Galoise; Central Park. Confidant and friend. Hey guys! Meet Bud and Mary Jane! Har Har Har! Señor: Hola! Que malo! Que Bueno! Hey, dude — You're the best — You're my second dad — Coach, counselor, and disciplinarian. You've influenced me in the best of all ways, I hope to succeed as much as you have. I'm sure to do great — I was born to kick a . . . Oh, by the way — how high was the welt? How long was he out for? To everyone: Peace, mellowness. K.B., OK?

Dear Melissa,

I have your picture, when you were less than one year old, framed and hanging on my bedroom wall to remind me of the many bounties of life I have and treasure. Foremost among them is my eldest grandchild, you. We planned to have our children early in order that we might grow up with them, but failed to have the foresight to recognize that benefit would extend to our grandchildren as well.

The memories I cherish of your growing-up years and my participation in them are my proudest possession . . . You, at six years old, and me sailing abroad Replique and visiting various parts together . . . You, Peter and I sharing sailing experiences as we cruised Long Island Sound and the adjacent islands together . . . Our philosophical discussions in the cockpit under the stars while at anchor at night; watching your growth and maturity as you emerged into a full-blown woman. Deja Vu, it was as if I was reliving your Mother's similar period of life.

My greatest pleasure to this day is to observe with satisfaction the wonderful relationships each of you in the family have with one another. Your Mom is one of the greatest women I know, and observing how well You, your brother and sister emulate her many favorable attriubtes is a never-ending source of joy.

May this milestone mark one of many waypoints you will pass on your journey through life. Cherish it, enjoy it, live it and love it — but remember, it is but one point of reference on your voyage. May you ever enjoy fair winds and moderate seas and the legacy of your heritage.

Love,

Pop-Pop

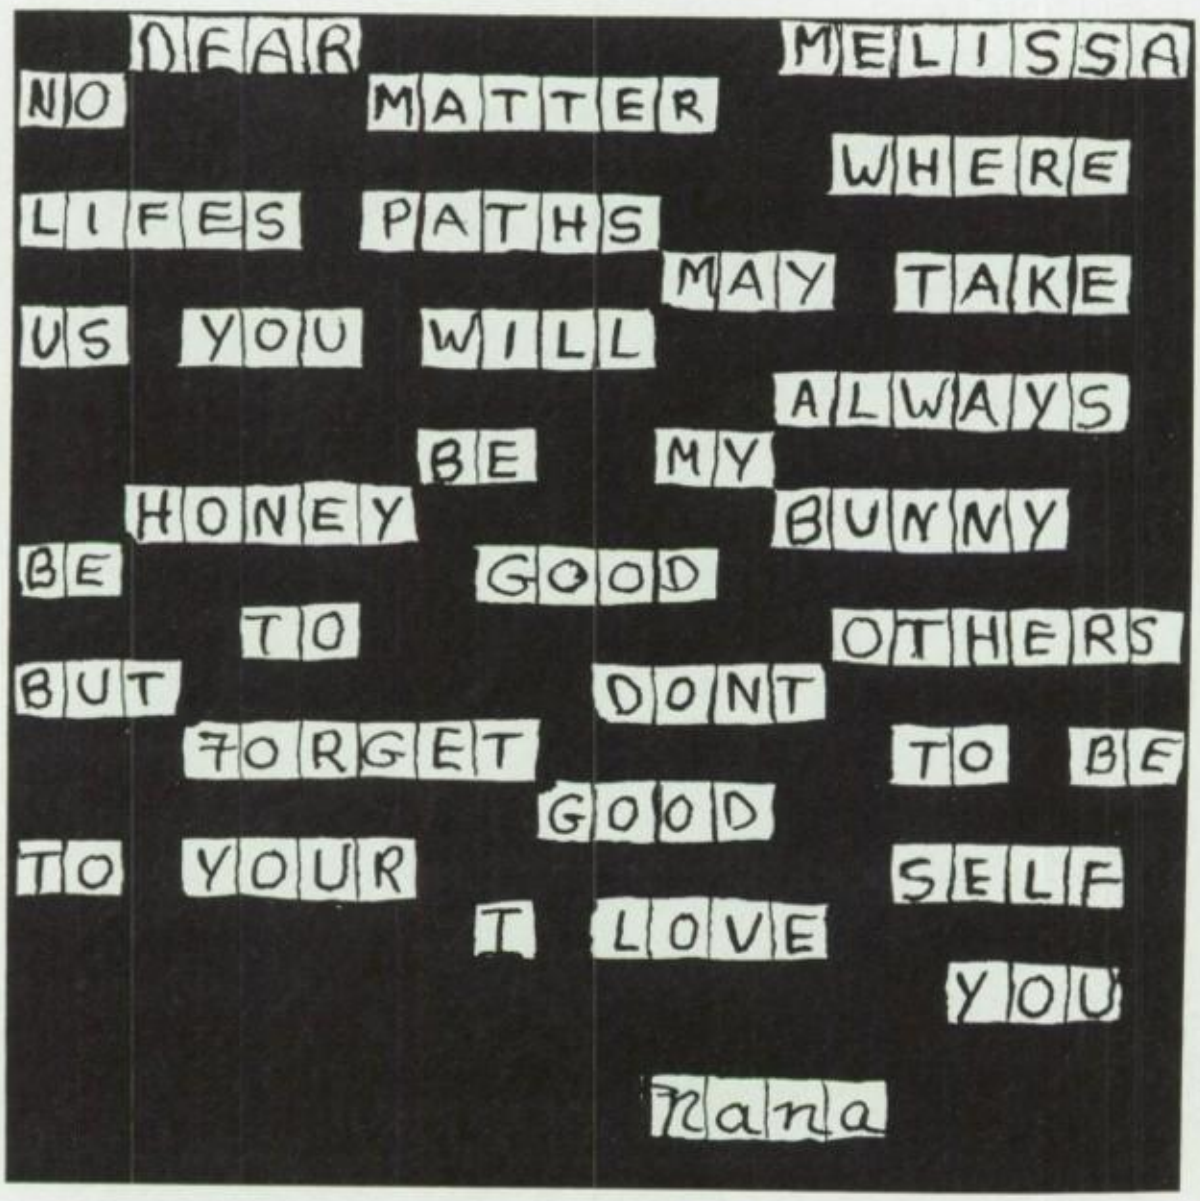
Dear Melissa,

We have really shared a Kaleidoscope! I close my eyes for five minutes and this is what I see . . . First Birthday candle — with little hair and a big bow . . . wiggling your nose for a parking spot . . . Cinderella's mouse — center stage proud and accomplished . . . the stairs of the big porch as I drive away in tears the first day . . . searching for a lost tooth in the grass . . . Dorothy Hamill haircut in a Brownie uniform . . . 'Bear Grease' . . . "We're Graduating Today" . . . the Operetta . . . sailing — with its serenity and sudden storms — much like us . . . trick or treating involves a principle . . . hearing the flute in the distance . . . camp — gone for sooo long . . . N.Y. connections . . . cheering at games . . . the telephone, the telephone! . . . clothes and more clothes . . . questions — morals, ethics, loyalties, and more questions . . . . "limits are loving" . . . career plans — college trips — interviews between one adult and another . . . constant 'reminders' about a car . . . through it all a warm, giving, humorous and intelligent person with passion — never on the fence — never dull . . . but Mom "What the Hell!" . . . spontaneity — that's what it's all about — and me as proud as I can be.

Melissa,

Let's pause, so that I can pass along some grey chords to you. You've taught me well, and we've shared our songs. There is more I want to learn, but I see you're moving on. Wait! I've got more to say. What's that? You're on a roll; you cannot stay? O.K.! But what about the hard knocks and dirty socks? "What's the big deal?" you ask. That's funny! That's what I used to tell my father. He didn't have an answer either. Guess you'll have to find out for yourself. Huh? "What the hell?" I hear. Hmm. That's what he used to say to me. We all seem to mell, as we stride through this continuum. Yet we etch a unique stroke on the monoliths that mark our time. (Like this yearbook.) You've done well, Melissa; yes, you have. But enough of this pause. Look ahead — down that road you must follow, and set your course. Have fun finding out what lurks beneath the shade. Dance in the sunlight. Know you are wiser and stronger and better. Know you will be tested some more. Pay no heed to the jeers. Listen to the cheers that accompany you, as you continue on. And know that I am always with you! I love you!

Love,
Cliff



Marc: I don't even know what to say. Seven years . . . holy s- -t! Sting forever! Once you replace Manu, you'll have to talk to the big man into hiring me on as a guitarist — I'll get better, I promise. Do you remember our phone call after exams in 9th grade? I'll be sure and say hi to Taylor for you. Tear it up in college; we'll both go to Wash. U., right? Remember the red bug? We'll have to get together in a couple of years and watch some Sting movies (but listen to Fishbone); I'll bring the Tequila. What can I say, I'm a demolition man. Spanish is hell, pero viva senor Migliozzi! Hey, I'll have to return all of your stuff someday. Too bad. I still don't know what to say. Well, thanks for everything. John: I'm ahead . . . eleven. You'd better start catching up. Can you beat a night in ICU? On second thought, don't even try. Keep on cruisin'! Marquis du Sade. I'll buy a Ferrari, then we'll talk. I'm a deathwise, so you'd better let me drive next time. And tell your mom the truth about the vodka some day. If I could spell the noise you make when you vomit, I'd write it here, just don't spread any rumors about — Well, you know. Oh, and don't forget our little rhymes. You know your social life is really poor when you start w- - -ing for fun. Roland: Can you imagine what my phone bill would be if you lived in New Brunswick? What would we do without conference calls? (What god do you worship?) How many troll points do you have, anyway? Have fun at Harvard, but don't forget to four-wheel Christine's car before you go. (or should we use the old cinder block method?) Christian: Hey bro, 'sup? Germany'll never seem the same after this. I'll have to come visit. Remember the hair dye and mario bros. forever. "Hey, that's great." Enjoy the guitar, dude. Anyway, it's been real. Call me sometime and SEND SOME MORE MARZIPAN!! Jeremy: Your Mom! Madrigals forever — or something like that. Remember Montreal. Those Thursday lunches dealt. So wait, do you like the Who? Thanks for everything, bab babe. George: What can I say? Floyd! I still have the program from the concert. Do you remember those girls? Enjoy Gornell. Jesse: That arm is mine! Oh yeah Right Guard says hi! Arianna: I refuse to say it . . . S.L. (our only private joke ever, oh my Gawd!) Mr. Moody: Keep on blowin that horn. I'll have to teach you how to play Demolition Man next. The FBI still hasn't come after that tile; I guess I've been lucky so far. Heidi: Remember the fiddleheads? Want a snow pea? Bill: Psycho! Fence to hell! You guys better win the Cetrullo next year! Jenni: So when are you going to wear that hat? I love the coat. Aren't you glad you didn't come skiing again? Greg: Thanks for the guitar tips, Dude. Music theory (Rat Boy) Christine: I will see that car destroyed, but not before I drive it! Josh and Jake: You're in charge next year. Have fun in Mads and enjoy the Jeep! Steph: What would Killington be without you? Gina: Mrs. Rothrock forever! Hill and Kari: With these eyes and a set of teeth like this, how can Ever go wrong? Thanks for the rides to school. What makes you you is that one special freckle. M & D: You guys always find a way to be more understanding than I would have thought possible. Thanks. Everyone: There it is then.

Heidi: I can't believe it. We've finally passed our limit — or our Rubicon. Unbelievable. Remember positiveness and enthusiasm? 69. Strip poker. My house — Dorsey yakking. Amaretto. Rhinos & Commies. Obnoxious Us. L'ville (Richard, especially). Who p_ _ _ed on Geraldine Ferraro's lawn? Volleyball — sprawls, rolls, men. Dean! Ruthless & Cindy. Sun Valley — Bruce! Jacuzzis. Speed quarters. Your poor window. Sun Country Wine . . . Hoagie Haven at 2 AM. Fountains. Mountains. Stoker freaks. Zong. Minnesota men. Britt's song. Burning Jeff's eye off. Arrested. Oh my. I love you forever. Laine. Kristafy & Jenny: I'm so glad we became friends. EP rules. Clubbing. The Woods. Hair products. The list. You guys are the best — Bacaw! Rick & Retz: The Fab Four lives forever! Yo squid, you're harshing my mellow. What's a Mona Lisa? (my bathroom) Mistake? My favorite lushes — I'll miss you. JDS: it's been real gnarly. Like, you're incredibly cool. Love you. Baked lamb Roast & Jeff: You commies. Stay out of cabins and don't get arrested. Zona. Court: You are my only on (chicken & rice!). Gina: Delegate, point of inquiry — who the hell is Aristogeides? M,P: We finally did it. (We'll probably win awards!) The Link staff lives forever. Love you both. Collins: When you get your own photo lab, I'll be there to dirty your tongs. And make me some toast. Mom, Dad, Lith & Ed: Thanks — I would never have made it without you! All my affection —

Elaine

Wit Hard Work Taste

Best Wishes, A.R. & Q.M.

Yo righteous Homeboys, we is gonna mess! We've had one hell of a party, huh? Pete, thanks for being a tightly strong working machine. As co-author to Stud II, the Two Studs, I know that together, the hot women of the world are our helpless slaves. Jer Baby, thanks for being a nerd. I do have to admit, you've begun to make your move. Dave, thanks for hanging, but never-the-less, you's goin' down. Hey, I love you guys!

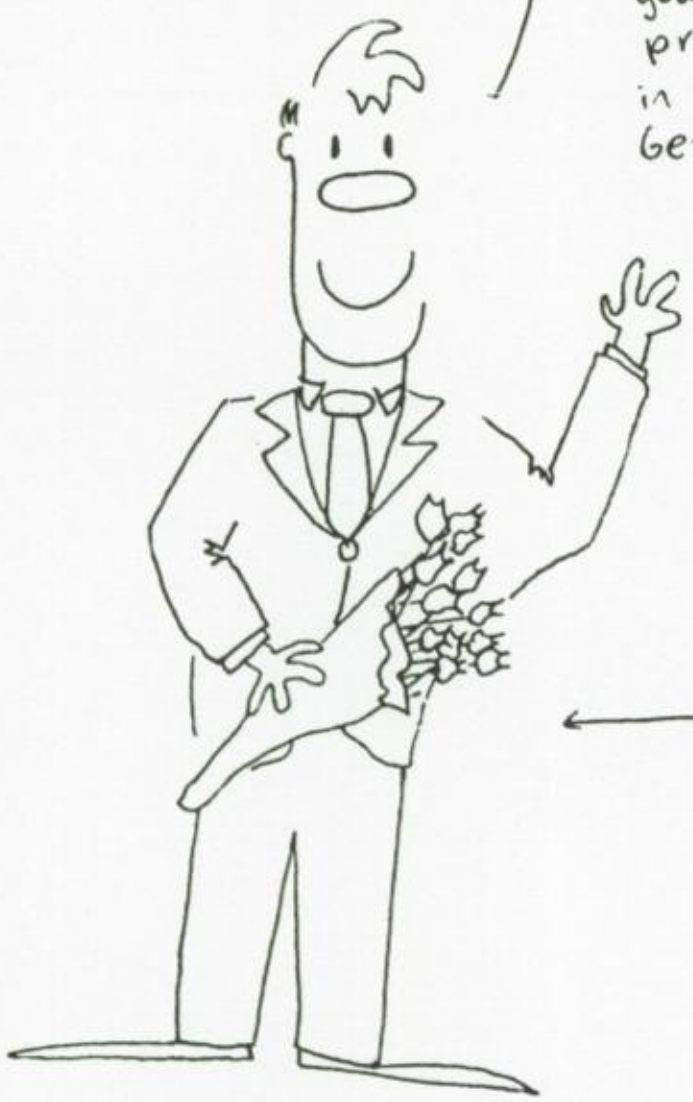
Hey, babe! I can't believe it, babe! It's all over - totally finished for good, babe! We made the yearbook. But hey kid, it's show biz - time to thank all the little people who made it all possible. Hey babe, they really aren't so little anyway. I'm only 5'4" babe, so they are bigger then me anyway. But back to the business babe; that is my life. Mrs. Rothrock - I know it's all been said before babe, but you are one hip chick. I'd take you to Vegas anytime, babe. You are total class - without you, this jammin' y-book would have no cool. Your tact is taste, babe. Thanks a million. Mr. McCord - Quinn, you are a totally cool cat. Can't say I'd take you to Vegas, babe, but I'd introduce you to my sister, Fiona, babe. And, it's a good thing you know language, babe, or else there would be a lot of spelling mistakes. You are a totally hip proofreader, babe. Mrs. Shriver and Mrs Whalen - You are the best agents I could ask for babe. Take some advice from me - give up the college bit, babes. You two were made for show biz, babe. I know, it's my life. Thanks a million for all the neato recommendations, babe - they got me my first date in Vegas. Mr. Bogle - hey babe, you are way cool, babe. You've got all the connections, babe! If you keep networking babe, your gonna own Vegas. Thanks for all your tips and connections - you got me where I am babe. Mrs. Skvir - what a class adviser babe. Tassie babe, come on out to Vegas, babe. I've got a private pad just for you & me, babe. I got an idea, babe. I wanna promote an event in Vegas babe - you and Doc in pool of jello babe. Well, think about it, babe. Get back to me on it.

Hey, babes - I love all you guys! Thanks for making me famous.



← Las Vegas Entertainer Speaking for Link Staff

The Link staff wishes to thank the prolific photojournalism class and Mrs. Hohmuth for their wonderful photographs and their marvelous mastery of the mysterious modes of Dektol. The Link staff, saving the best for last, would like to give an extra special thank you to Matthew Algood.

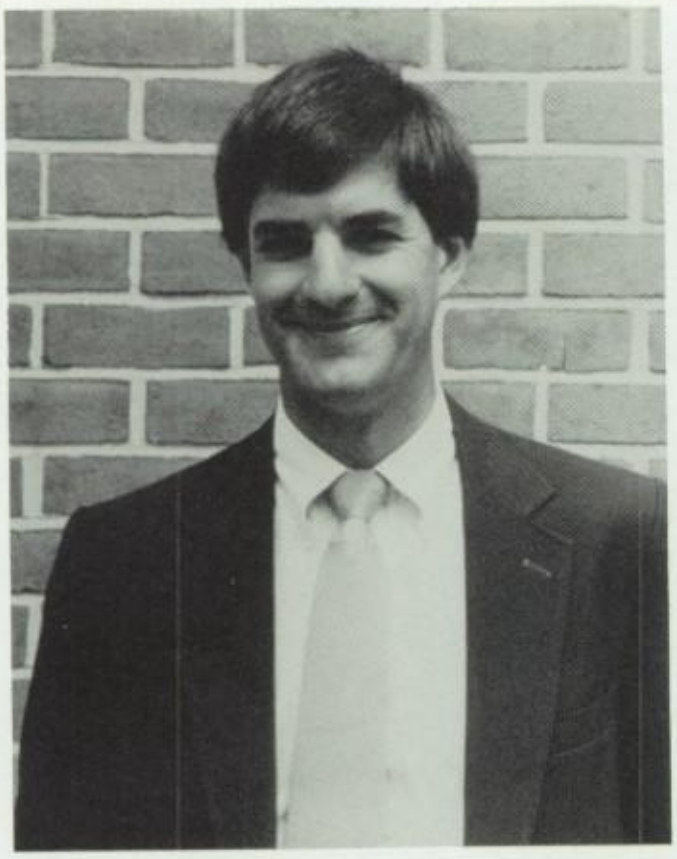
SPRING '88

We say goodbye to those teachers leaving us. Though they will no longer be teaching at P.D.S., their advice, be it in academics, athletics, or life in general, will live on in students' minds for many years to come. Who will forget Howie Jacobson's efforts in creating an ultimate frisbee team, which succeeded in capturing the state championship. This commitment can be found in many of P.D.S.'s teachers, such as Lauren Muller, who is so dedicated to writing, that besides teaching a writing workshop, she keeps a journal in her car, and asks all passengers to write an entry.

And then there's Mr. Perrulli, who, because of his love of teaching, has tutored many of us long after we have left his classes. (In fact, he is leaving P.D.S. to start a new school.) Mr. Donnelly is another devoted "mentor," who has not only taught physics and math, but has stayed after school to practice an avocation: carpentry. (Who knows what our plays would have been like without Mr. Donnelly?) And of course, there is one teacher who has dedicated most of her life to teaching, and to the P.D.S. community: Elizabeth Fine.

This year we say goodbye to twenty teachers: Jon Achinstein, Alice Alston, Thomas Binford, Donna Bond, Jeff Bond, Lee Crawford, Whitney Donnelly, Elizabeth Fine, Alicia Hercz, Howie Jacobson, Cheryl Johnson, Anna Koberna, Lauren Muller, Sue Neider, Francesco Perrulli, Michael Ritter, Sheila Robertson, Cheryl Silva, Peter Southam, and Nancy Wilson. Through their commitment to teaching, they have helped to make P.D.S. a better place for future students. To them we say — Thank You.



JOSE
